

Prisma™

Grace and chic is here redefined in fully mirror-polished and monobloc cutlery. Light, yet with adequate solidity to the hand, this pattern is a stylish combination of the best of the ancient British and French formative designs. Prisma has softly squared pommels which taper gradually to unadorned tools, the knife alone having two engraved lines emphasising the division between hilt and blade. An elegant pattern that allows for a confident table setting suiting equally both the traditional and the modern.
