

Revol Porcelainware

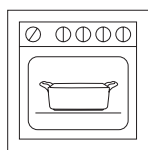

Revol porcelain is the crème-de-la-crème of culinary-grade ceramics. It is made from kaolin, feldspar, and silica, fired at an ultra-high temperature (1320°C). Since 1789, Revol's expertise combines the characteristics of porcelain, with the right shapes and thicknesses demanded for culinary items. Revol is a recognised Porcelain manufacturer by the Société Française de Céramique (French Ceramics Society, French & international official organisation).

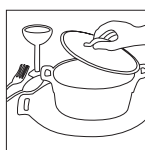

With Revol, you can prepare, cook, present, and serve all in the same dish

✓ Oven – The temperature of Revol porcelain rises gradually, gently cooking and releasing flavours.
